Mead Pulls Alleged 'Ace in the Hole'---Retains Job

City Mgr. Robert W. Mead has been a resident of Redwood City since Aug. 1, he told Redwood City councilmen Monday night in the surprise claim to a long-anticipated showdown of city employees' residing outside the city limits in violation of the city charter.

Mead's statement came as a surprise and was termed an "ace in the hole" by Mayor W. W. Hilton following a lengthy and hotly-debated council session which was attended by many Redwood City residents who gave voice to their views pro and con.

The showdown came when Councilman C. C. Armstrong introduced a resolution to oust Mead on the grounds that he no longer qualified for his position because he had failed to move to Redwood City since his appointment nearly two years ago.

Mead, whose home is in Palo Alto, replied "no" when Armstrong asked him if he had established residence in Redwood City.

Later in the discussion, Mead asked the council if it would consider his renting a room in order to become a qualified resident.

"No one has offered a house to me," Mead said, even though Redwood City property owners and real estate men had been aware of his search.

"You help me find a suitable house and I'll take it. I also plan to buy a lot and build my own home when building materials are available," he added. Mead said that his plan to rent a room was not intended as a subterfuge, but rather as a temporary means to qualify him for the job of city manager.

The council had already voted on Armstrong's resolution, passing it by a 4 to 3 vote, one vote short of the necessary majority to officially dismiss Mead from the city payroll.

Councilmen Armstrong, Floyd Granger, George W. McNulty, and Mayor W. W. Hilton, had voted in favor of the measure on the grounds that Mead's action was in defiance of the city charter and that their oaths as councilmen demanded that they vote in accord with the city's laws.

Members of the council asked City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy for an interpretation as to the legality of residence in a room as Mead proposed, and the attorney replied that since "presence and intent" determine residence, for all practical purposes the city manager could be considered a resident of the city.

It was then that Mead told the council he had rented a room at 1004 Hopkins Ave. on Aug. 1. He produced a receipt for $30.00, signed by A. N. Paterson.

Mayor Hilton termed Mead's move "an ace in the hole," and Armstrong charged the city manager with misrepresenting himself. Mead replied that he had interpreted Armstrong's question earlier in the meeting to apply to Mead's family, and not to the official alone.

Mead then offered an apology and said he had no intention of misrepresening himself.

Armstrong offered a new resolution to reaffirm Mead's position as city manager in view of McCarthy's opinion that the city manager had established legal residence by renting a room.

Councilman Granger, who had held out against Mead because, Granger said, he was defying the charter, then proposed that no city car could be taken outside the city limits unless for official business purposes. His resolution was rejected for lack of a second.

"Somebody has to give up something about this," Granger said in introducing his resolution.

Several citizens spoke from the audience on Mead's behalf, saying that he had done a good job in office and that his proposed ejection from his job was made on grounds with which he was unable to comply. They cited several examples of the difficulties encountered in finding suitable homes in Redwood City because of the housing shortage.

It was also pointed out by Councilman Harold Anderson that the city council had deliberated on the appointment of a city manager for six months when Mead had been chosen for the job, and it would be difficult now to find a suitable man to replace him.

Asked why Mead was being used as the "example" in the show-down when other city employes reside outside of the city limits in non-compliance with the charter.

To this, McNulty replied that Mead is directly responsible to the council, while other city employes are responsible to Mead. The council could not tell the city employees what to do, McNulty said.

The issue of city employes residing outside the city limits was first brought up last January. At that time, City Attorney McCarthy said he doubted if a violation of the charter was being made since no law requires the impossible and that those who prepared the city charter did not anticipate a shortage of housing comparable to the present situation.

Mead and other city employes received an ultimatum from the city council in May, and at that time, Aug. 1 was set as the deadline for city employes to move into Redwood City.

In addition to Mead, City Clerk Ralph Dodge, and Ass't. City Engineer C. E. Randlett, and two other employes reside outside Redwood City.

The city charter states that "residence shall not be a qualification for his (the city manager's) appointment; but promptly thereafter he shall become and remain an actual resident of the city."

Another provision of the charter reads, "All officers, clerks and assistants of the city and departments thereof, except such as may be employed for special purposes, must be citizens of the United States and residents of Redwood City during their period of employment."

'Porgy and Bess' Opens S.F. Engagement, Aug. 21

"Porgy and Bess," the George Gershwin-Dubose Hayward musical success about Negro life on Catfish Row in Charleston, S. C., will be presented by S. Hurok at the opera house in San Francisco beginning Aug. 21.

Featured in the title roles of the Cheryl Crawford production of the great American folk opera are William Franklin and Etta Moten, with Avon Long and Edward Matthews, and Alexander Smallens, conductor of the symphonic orchestra.

Cheryl Crawford brings "Porgy and Bess" to San Francisco direct from New York where the popular show has completed five engagements. This is the company's third nation-wide tour.

Franklin, the new "Porgy," has been featured with the Chicago Symphony and the WGN Symphony orchestras and is rich in radio and opera experience. Miss Moten, seen as the enticing "Bess," was Gershwin's personal choice for the role. She is also a veteran of musical comedy, radio and the concert stage.

Avon Long, the happy "Sportin' Life," was recently featured in the movie "Ziegfeld Follies" and Edward Matthews, who is the alternate "Porgy" in addition to his role as "Jake" has also gained national recognition in the theater.

Other well known artists in the all-Negro cast are Harriet Jackson, Georgette Harvey, Warren Coleman, Alma Lillie Hubbard, and the Eva Jessye Choir.

Menlo Park Council Okays New Budget

MENLO PARK — A proposed budget of $37,675 for 1944-45 was passed this week by the Menlo Park City Council and will go to the voters for approval at a protest meeting, Aug. 22. Councilman Charles Burgess, explained that the new budget does not exceed that of the past year.

Burgess said that the new budget calls for a maintenance tax rate of 84 cents, and a 5-cent capital outlay fund. He further requested an additional special 16-cent levy to obtain $4600 to qualify for an equal allotment from the state for acquisition of sites for postwar improvements. He said that the city must lay aside this money to be eligible for the state grant, and that by so doing it will help create jobs after the war for persons now in wartime industry who will be unemployed later.

The street commission approved the establishment of a permanent street department and to employ a superintendent on a part-time basis to supervise the work of the department. The commission recommended Max Mielke for the position and will draw up plans for the department for council approval.

Resolution was passed for the Chestnut St. improvement after City Engr. Edward Smith reported that property owners had received costs of the anticipated improvements, and only one protest was received.

The protest, signed by J. A. Morris, Villa Lightbody, A. Assenza, and A. Warren, all Chestnut St., residents, requested a guarantee from the council that the improvement costs would not exceed the $3913.78 estimate. A protest meeting for further discussion on the proposed improvements will be held, Sept. 12 in the City Hall at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Maud E. Huesties requested permission to move her boarding house from 930 El Camino Real to 664 Roble Ave., a distance of one-half block. Mayor Donald Fisher ordered an investigation of the proposed change and explained that the results would be reported at the next meeting, Aug. 22.

Greyhound, Driver Face Damage Suit

Pacific Greyhound Lines, Inc., and Marie C. Bargolotti of San Rafael, bus driver, this week were named defendants in a suit for $11,850 damages as the result of a headon collision in Burlingame Aug. 22, 1943.

The suit was filed by James F. Platt of Colma, on behalf of himself and of Dale Platt. Dale, a passenger in the car driven by James F. Platt which collided with the bus at the intersection of Peninsular Ave. and California Dr., received numerous injuries, including concussion of the brain and numerous lacerations, the complaint filed in superior court here today states.

Dale asks $10,000 for his injuries. James R. Platt asks $1100 for damages to his automobile, $750 special damages and court costs.

Some 18 million gallons of gasoline were used in 21 days by the Allies in the North African invasion.

R. C. Council Denies Petition For Turkey License in City

Permission to raise turkeys commercially at 127 Park St. was denied to Harvey L. Deem Monday at a meeting of the Redwood City Council when a delegation of persons residing in Deem's neighborhood appeared before the council to protest the granting of a permit.

Harry Ude, 201 Park St., was spokesman for the group of protesters and said they were not in favor of a commercial enterprise in a residential district. Ude also told the councilmen that Deem had several roosters which residents in the neighborhood found annoying.

Deem asked for a reasonable length of time in which to remove his turkeys, after explaining that his turkey raising was not to be on a permanent basis but rather a contribution to the war effort.

Deem said he had only one rooster on his property.

Further discussion of rat abatement resulted in the adoption of a plan for educating local residents in rat extermination and laws regarding rat abatement.

There are sufficient ordinances at present to enforce a clean-up of the rat situation, Paul A. McCarthy, city attorney, said, and so no further legislation was deemed necessary.

A request from Carl R. Wahlstrom, 1441 Roosevelt Ave., in which the city was asked to pay for damages to Wahlstrom's motorcycle was referred to the city's insurance company. Wahlstrom was involved in a collision with a Redwood City park maintenance truck on Roosevelt Ave. near Hudson St., July 27. The council denied liability in the accident.

Harry C. Seipell, district manager of Fox West Coast Theatres, appeared before the council to protest a proposed two cent levy on theater tickets, part of an amendment to the business license ordinance now under consideration. Seipell said his company would prefer an increase in the cost of the business license, rather than a tax on admissions since the former would entail less bookkeeping and also have no effect upon theater attendance.

A tax on admission must be passed on to the theater-goer, he said, and as a result, attendance drops are noticeable.

A committee from the council will meet with Seipell in the near future, Mayor W. W. Hilton said. The committee will also meet with representatives from the telephone company in regard to similiar proposed increases.

The Redwood City Tribune was named official paper by the council after bids were opened by City Clerk Ralph Dodge. The Tribune represented the largest paid circulation of those papers that presented bids for legal advertising. One bid was not considered as the bid failed to state the size of the paper's paid circulation.

Letters from the cities of Corpus Christi, Tex., and Augusta, Ga., were read in regard to passage of H.R. 3961, rivers and harbors bill now pending in Congress. The council voted to send letters urging the passage of the bill to California senators and representatives.

James Zacanti and August Sigignoli requested a restaurant license for the Redwood Inn, 755 El Camino Real, which was formerly operated by Sigignoli. A representative from the health department said the facilities were sufficient for the operation of an eating establishment.

The council also granted a restaurant license to Mrs. Willie Williamson who will conduct "Willies' Southern Kitchen," at 2314 Broadway. The establishment was formerly known as Ray and Willie's Kitchen.

Permission to operate a fountain lunch counter at 2089 Broadway was granted L. E. Boudreau pending an inspection by the board of health.

Permission to conduct a wholesale business at 232 Franklin St. was granted Marion L. Walker of the Walker Beverage Co. No on sale business license was requested.

16 Leave For Induction

Sixteen persons recently were sent from Redwood City-San-Carlos-Belmont Selective Service Board 106 to San Francisco for induction into the armed services. The list included six transfers from other boards. Three others were transferred to other boards for induction.

Leaving today were Bruce W. McLaughlin, Albert P. Costa, Joseph F. Rolland, Jack W. Bradshaw, Eugene J. Fakhouri, Ralph J. D. Belanesi, Darrell L. Howerton, Maurice H. Harding Jr., Jay W. Baker, Fred A. Fair; and transfers—Marvin J. McNutt, Raymond J. Johnson, Philip R. Booker, Melvin E. Sparks, Hartwell M. Steele and Robert J. Stahl.

Transferred to other boards for induction were Tommy T. Muranaka, Merrill W. Heuer and Nathan S. Kimura.

A group will go to San Francisco Saturday for preinduction examinations, Chief Clerk George F. Paul said today.

Community Chest Drive Opening Set

Redwood City's 1944 National War Fund and Community Chest campaign will open officially at the third annual USO party for servicemen at Sequoia High School next month, officials disclosed this week. Letters will be sent next week to all local organizations.

Elmer K. Ross, past president of the Community Chest, originator of the USO party, and now sales manager for M. Greenberg Co. of San Francsico, has been named president of this year's fund and party chairman.

Other 1944 officers include Duncan Reynard, district supervisor for Pacific Gas and Electric Co., who is campaign chairman; T. N. Thompson, cashier at the First National Bank, who is campaign committee chairman; J. A. Buhler, manager of the California St. branch, Bank of America, who is special gifts chairman, and former Mayor Louis Christensen, who is professional groups chairman.

Five local agencies receive their funds from the Community Chest: Salvation Army, Boy and Girl Scouts, San Mateo County Preventorium, and the YMCA. There are 21 War Chest agencies also.

Coastside Forms Water District

Coastside residents this week voted for the disincorporation of the Salada Beach Public Utility District and for the formation of a North Coast Water District, County Clerk William H. Augustus announced today.

Augustus reported that 187 votes were cast in favor of disincorporation of the Salada Beach Public Utility District and 34 votes were against it. A total of 315 voted for formation of the North Coast Water District and 42 voted against.

The special election was called by the County Board of Supervisors after a petition containing 28 names was presented to the board. Voting yesterday took place at Sharp Park, Edgemar, Vallemar, Rockaway Beach and Pedro Valley.

The new water district contemplates a $108,000 pumping project which would send Hetch Hetchy water over Sweeney Ridge from South San Francisco to Sharp Park. The district proposed an eight-inch main, pumping plant and storage reservoir.

Menlo Park Gravedigger, Sailor Insane, Rules Judge

Testimony of a two-man psychiatric board yesterday afternoon convinced Superior Court Judge Andrew R. Schottky of Mariposa County, sitting for Judge A. R. Cotton, that Walter J. Perry, 32-year-old Menlo Park gravedigger, and Cole V. Madison, 18-year-old discharged sailor from Mountain View, were insane, leading him to commit the two ghouls to the State Hospital for the Criminally Insane at Ukiah.

Perry and Madison, who had admitted disinterring and mutilating the body of Dolores Sifuentes, 21, of Redwood City, in Holy Cross Cemetery, Menlo Park, on April 8, nervously twitched in their seats during a half hour's testimony. Neither Perry nor Madison was interrogated.

Dr. Allen H. Williams, medical director at Twin Pines Sanatorium at Belmont and chief of the psychiatric clinic at Community Hospital, who was appointed on June 26 by Judge Cotton as a member of the psychiatric board, testified that Madison had the mentality of a seven or eight-year-old boy and that Perry had the mental age of "not much over six."

Dr. E. W. Wilson, superintendent of Agnew State Hospital, second member of the psychiatric board, did not appear in court but sent a written statement which collaborated with Dr. Williams' testimony.

Dr. Williams said Madison was a fluent talker but declared he did not have much understanding. He contradicted himself a good deal during the examination, Dr. Williams said. Dr. Williams stated that the mentality of each of the men was so low they could not disinguish between right and wrong.

Psychologists consider that anyone with a mentality under 10 years of age cannot be held responsible for his acts, Dr. William said.

Stanford Smith, Santa Cruz attorney representing Madison, requested that Madison be committed to the Agnew State Hospital in Santa Clara County so that he could be close to his family, but he withdrew his request when Judge Schottky pointed out that Ukiah was the institution for the criminally insane.

Judge Schottky committed Perry and Madison to the custody of Sheriff James J. McGrath for deliverance to the state hospital at Ukiah. It was stipulated that the two must be returned here for trial if and when they are found sane.

Madison had been given a medical discharge after a short stay in the navy and had been doing odd jobs when the Menlo Park crime was committed. Perry was confined to a state home for mental patients in Sonoma County when he was 12 years old and was confined to the institution nine years.

The body of the Sifuntes girl was found by her father, Andrew Sifuentes, 912 Arguello St., and by Sifuntes' brother-in-law, Augustine Ochoa, 808 Walnut St., a week after Dolores was buried when they went to the cemetery to carry out Dolores' deathbed request to bury her high school books and composition with her body.

When the girl's nude body was found on top of the coffin, her head was at the foot of the grave. Her blue and white burial dress had been ripped off and the clothing had been mixed up in the dirt.

Policemen's Ball Set for Aug. 26

Mailing of tickets to the 16th Annual Policemen's Ball, sponsored by the Peninsula Police Officers Association, has been completed in Redwood City, Officer C. V. Stafford of the Redwood City Police Dept., who is in charge of tickets sales here said this week.

The policeman's ball is a benefit affair for the widow's and orphan's fund of the association, and will be held Saturday evening, Aug. 26, at the Bay Meadows Clubhouse in San Mateo.

Persons receiving tickets through the mail need not feel obligated to buy the tickets, Stafford said, pointing out that the return envelopes accompanying the tickets can be used to return undesired tickets to the ticket committee.

Decorations planned for the dance will be in a patriotic motif, and during the evening, an honor guard of military and shore patrol will present the national colors.

Members of the Redwood City Police Dept. that has been named to serve as committee chairmen for the ball are Sgt. S. E. Douglass, reception committee and Sgt. Bud Thorpe, music committee.

Officer Leroy Hubbard of the Atherton Police Dept. is chairman of the publicity committee, and Officer Edwin Maillard of the San Carlos police will head the policing and parking committee.

Committee Selected For Forester Picnic

Arrangements committee for the annual Ct. Madrone 158 Foresters of America picnic at Memorial Park, Sunday, Aug. 27, was named today with Glen Van Buskirk listed as chairman.

Others working with Van Buskirk include Ernest H. Bean, Leo L. Chappelle, James O. Archibald, Hal Honore, Albert P. Jordan, Jack D. Gillies, George W. Clarkson, Jr., John P. Clarken, and Charles H. Mitchell.

Class initiation will be held, Wednesday, Sept. 16, Forester George Solari reported.

Gillies and Jordan have been appointed to represent the Foresters at the local War Chest meeting, Aug. 18.

TROOP 104—Resumes their regular weekly meetings on Fridays at the First Baptist Church, after returning from Camp Pescadero where they spent one week with their scoutmaster. All indications point in the direction that all scouts and scoutmaster had a wonderful week at the camp and were able to pass many tests, as well as make ship of Scoutmaster Seitz and the troop committee, the troop will spend a weekend at Summit Springs on Kings Mountain, Aug. 12 and 13. Having just recently purchased some new equipment they are anxious to give it a try out. The troop is meeting regularly each Wednesday evening with an average attendance of 15.

TROOP 159 of Woodside are now in the process of making over an old building that they have been able to secure for the scouts' use into a scout hall. Progress is being made and most of the work is being done by the scouts themselves. This hall will be used by Cubs, scouts and girls scouts after it has been completely done over and remodeled.

TROOP 160—Regular meetings of Troop 160 are being held each Tuesday at the scout hall with an average attendance of 15 scouts with their Scoutmaster Armstrong. The past two meetings have been spent in cleaning their scout rooms, are preparing for an overnight camp Aug. 12 and 13 at Hawes Park.

SHIP 145—Holds regular ship meetings each Monday at the scout hall. The past few meetings have been devoted to preparations for the Regional Regatta to be held at Stockton over the Labor Day holidays. This annual event is looked forward to with a great deal of enthusiasm. The ship is making plans to sail down through the bay to the regatta in their own boats.

TROOP 162—Under the leadership of Mr. Stevens, neighborhood commissioner for the troop, meetings are being held each week. This troop lost their scoutmaster last spring and expect to have a new one to start the fall season.

Juvenile Home Site Study Set

Selection of a site for the new county juvenile home is expected to be made within the next two weeks, Joseph L. Hyman, chairman of the County Probation Committee, reported recently.

A sub-committee for the selection of a site and type of building for a new juvenile home was appointed by the probation committee yesterday afternoon. Named to the subcommittee were Hyman, chairman; Mrs. Teresa Altieri and Edward H. Cosgriff.

Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of the County Health and Welfare Dept., and Adrian F. Ward, head of the social welfare dept., under whose jurisdiction the administration of the juvenile home comes, told the probation committee they favored the building of the home on county-owned property near the County Relief Home. They declared they thought it is a good site and that facilities are available there.

Although the probation committee is not scheduled to meet again until Sept. 12, the sub-committee will meet shortly, at which time a site is expected to be chosen, Hyman said.

County Utilities Assessed on 14 Million

Assessed valuation of public utilities in San Mateo County for this year is $14,605,590, it was reported from Sacramento today. This is an increase of $361,090 over last year's assessed valuation of $14,244,500. The valuation was set by the State Board of Equalization.

S. C. School Tax Upped to $1.58

Providing for an increase of $48,895, of which $30,000 was a newly created building fund, the board of trustees of the San Carlos Elementary School District this week adopted a $144,936 budget and called for a $1.58 tax rate

The budget meeting was held in one of the three new pre-built classrooms, each of which were open to inspection by the public.

The salaries of three additional teachers and one new custodian of the school plant were added to the budgets as well as salary increases in administration, instruction and the maintenance.

T. F. Miller, president of the board, pointed out that the new tax rate, which is an increase of nearly 70 cents, still comes within the $2 limitation approved by San Carlos voters in the February election.

The additional allotment for postwar building follows a trend established by the Sequoia High School District last week, which also levied increased taxes for the purpose of setting aside a reserve for construction to take care of the expected enrollment increases.

Part of the building reserve will be put to use immediately in San Carlos however, as construction of three prefabricated buildings, similar to ones in use now in San Mateo, Redwood City, and Mountain View, would cost approximately $10,000.

The buildings in San Carlos, previewed at last night's meeting, have three rooms, each room being 25x40 feet in size and having its own heating unit. The floor is made of cement with asphalt title. John L. Reid, the architect who designed the buildings, was present at the meeting.

250 Baby Chicks Burned to Death

Over 250 baby chicks were burned to death and the building in which they were housed was completely destroyed by a fire that swept the property owned by L. C. Clark, Thornhill Dr., in the Graceland Park district west of San Carlos, Saturday, the county fire department reported.

The San Carlos Fire Department assisted the county in extinguishing the flames before they could spread to any other part of the property.

They are patient about waiting

because those Long Distance calls mean so much

A soldier has to line up for a lot of things but we don't like to see him wait too long for a Long Distance call.

Would you mind helping a little by saving the wires from seven to ten for the service men?

That's when thousands of soldiers rush to the telephones at the camps and we'd like to give them first call on Long Distance.

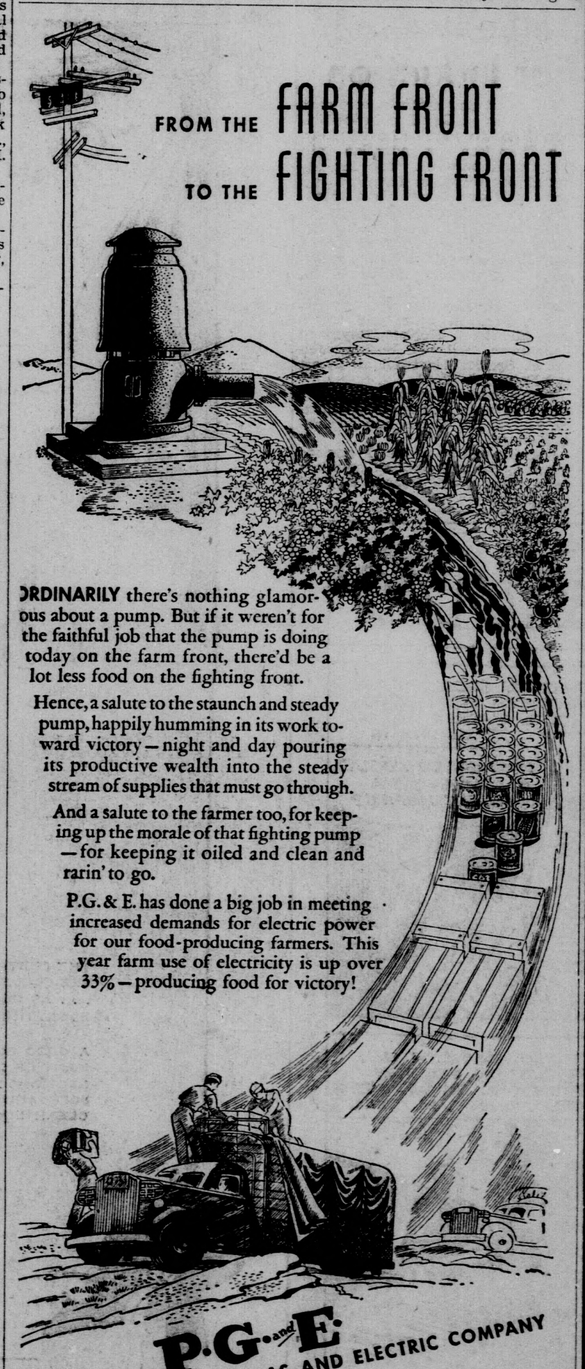
FROM THE FARM FRONT TO THE FIGHTING FRONT



ORDINARILY there's nothing glamorous about a pump. But if it weren't for the faithful job that the pump is doing today on the farm front, there'd be a lot less food on the fighting front.

Hence, a salute to the staunch and steady pump, happily humming in its work toward victory—night and day pouring its productive wealth into the steady stream of supplies that must go through.

And a salute to the farmer too, for keeping up the morale of that fighting pump—for keeping it oiled and clean and rarin' to go.

P.G. & E. has done a big job in meeting increased demands for electric power for our food-producing farmers. This year farm use of electricity is up over 33%—producing food for victory!

R.C. War Workers Hit by Hammond Plant Shutdown

Monday's announcement by Frank P. Lovett, president of the Hammond Aircraft Co., that the company's plants in South San Francisco and San Francisco will shut down following completion of present sub-contracts came as a blow to a large number of Redwood City war workers employed by Hammond.

This first shutdown of a major war plant in the Bay Area will affect nearly 1200 Peninsula workers. Lovett stated that he expected that Hammond would wind up its present contract sometime in September.

"It may very well be the end of our operations in the Bay Area," Lovett stated yesterday, indicating that he saw no prospect of re-opening Hammond's two large factories, one of which is located just north of Mills Field on the Bayshore Hwy.

On June 8, following cancellation by Douglas of its contract with Hammond, the latter firm released 1100 workers.

Hammond later attempted to hire back most of these workers. Lovett explained yesterday that Hammond had received a "letter of intent" from another Southern California plane manufacturing company which planned to give Hammond a contract which would assure future operation. Negotiations for this contract fell through, Lovett said, because it was found that re-tooling of Hammond's plants would be too expensive and require too much manpower.

Scanlons Purchase Hillsborough House

William H. Scanlon, steel company executive, and Mrs. Scanlon, have purchased a residence on El Portal Rd., Hillsborough, for $30,000, stamps on a deed recorded at request of California Pacific Title & Trust Co. indicate. The residence was sold by Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Akselsen.

T. I. Moseley and Earl S. Douglass, executives of Dalmo Victor, Inc., new electronics industry in San Carlos, have purchased 53 acres of land on the east side of the railroad tracks for future development. Indicated purchase price was $23,500. Part of the property is inside the city limits of San Carlos and part of it is outside the city limits. The property was purchased from California Pacific Title Insurance Co.

Rubbish Fire Endangers Two Houses, Coops

Two houses and nearby chicken coops were saved from destruction Sunday noon when a rubbish fire got out of control and burned over an acre of grassland on Canyon Rd. between Jefferson Ave. and Oak Knoll Rd., the county fire warden's office reported today.

According to the county fireman, a man was burning rubbish at the site when a gust of wind blew the flames into nearby grass.

Several fences were burned by the fire.

Socialites Held In Jail Here

George S. and Mary C. Carpenter, both 43, prominent socialites were lodged in the San Mateo County Jail Tueseday morning. Mr. Carpenter was booked on drunk driving while Mrs. Carpenter was booked on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Mr. Carpenter was arrested at Menlo Park on El Camino Real and taken to the jail but released on $100 bail while Mrs. Carpenter was arrested by Redwood City police as she was about to visit her husband in jail. Mrs. Carpenter posted $10 bail pending her appearance in police court tomorrow.

The Carpenters who moved to 443 Fulton Rd., San Mateo from West Chicago are both listed in the New York and San Francisco social registers. Mr. Carpenter is a 1923 graduate of Harvard University. They are the parents of a daughter, Rosalie, a former student at Stanford.

W. B. Curran To Lead C. of C. Barbecue

W. B. (Bill) Curran will serve as master of ceremonies of the annual Redwood City Chamber of Commerce barbecue to be held Saturday, Aug. 19, Fred Schmitz, chairman of the barbecue committee announced today.

Curran is a past president of the Commuters Club and has acted as master of ceremonies on many occasions here.

Hal Honore' has promised the committee to obtain a good orchestra, Schmitz said, and GI entertainment from Dibble General Hospital will be featured on the evening's program.

Tickets for the affair which starts at 6:30 p.m. are now on sale, and reservations will close Aug. 16. The barbecue will be held on the Sequoia High School grounds.

Children's Librarian At Hawes Park

The Redwood's City Public Library will co-operate with the Redwood City Recreation Department, and send their children's librarian, Margaret Goodloe to Hawes Park every Friday morning from 11 to 12 to read to the children.

This new activity will continue on every Friday until school starts providing the participation warrants it. In the event the demand is great enough the story hour will continue on Saturdays after school begins.

One-Third of School Site Purchased

One-third of the 30-acre tract in Belmont to be used as a future site for a high school has been purchased by Sequoia High School from Isabel H. Bourdette for $20,000, a deed recorded with County Recorder T. Clark Rice shows.

Total purchase price for the 30 acres will be $60,000. The site is the John W. Bourdette property located on Alameda de las Pulgas and Cranfield Ave. just inside Belmont bordering San Carlos.

The first large American dictionary contained 70,000 words, only a fraction of the number in modern ones but 20,000 more than the standard one then in use in England.

GARDEN: Many Comments Come With Seed Requests

BY ROLLY LANGLEY

Of the thousands of requests from central California greentumblers for a trial package of Slow Bolting Flat Dutch cabbage seed, a high percentage (too high) just have the enclosed, self-addressed stamped envelope with a note—"please send seed." But some give hints of what goes in their garden, and these are specially appreciated.

For example, Jack Slaughter of Oakland: "The Chanteney carrot was a revelation. I planted in a sand-filled trench, and grew nice big fellows, 6 to 8 inches long—smooth and particularly crisp and tender. Split in suitable sized sections, they're deliciously crunchy to eat raw with a flavor that's mild and delicate . . . . Have a beautiful stand, some 26 Utah type celery. Location permits quite a bit of morning sun, but the rest of the day, mostly shade. No insects or plant disease of any sort . . . ."

There's a confirmation on a suggestion given here sometime back. If you'll fill a pit with sand, and feed a nutrient solution, you can grow carrots to perfection. Why produce malformed carrots in soil of poor texture when sand is so cheap and easy to provide?

And Slaughter's mention of celery serves as a reminder that you can still set out celery transplants, which will grow in partial shade during Summer, but do better in full sun. Incidentally, don't you think he could get a job as a carrot salesman with that colorful description?

Dorothy F. Osburn boasts growing sweet potatoes in her Bay Area garden, which is unusual. Of course it's too late to plant them now, but next year you might try a few, with the distinct understanding that it's just a gamble, unless you've the hot spot for them. Peanuts have been growing in districts where it's supposed to be too cold. But then the crop is just peanuts!

This is not a cooking column, and any suggestions given here should be considered strictly as formulas—not recipes. Formulas which, with your help and imagination, will result in good dishes, such as the zucchini formula set down recently.

Marguerite Nichol of San Leandro followed through on it, and reports satisfactory results. "Now—can you tell us what is wrong with our strawberries—in the barrel and in the ground? Fertilized heavily, watered thoroughly, clipped runners, and we have BEAUTIFUL plants—large leaves—few blossoms—almost no berries! (Planted in February) . . . Banners . . . No evidence of disease or insects," she writes.

This looks like a case of just needing more time. Unless berries are planted earlier in the rainy season, they seldom produce much the first year. Then too, Summer is the slack season. Strawberry plants should begin to blossom and produce more freely in the next few weeks. As for the berries in the strawberry barrel—remember our "experience" letters last year? We found then that while many have tried strawberry barrels, few have any lasting luck with them. You're strictly on your own with barrels after such warning.

"In your recent column on ways of preparing zucchini you omitted one of the easiest and most tasty of all," writes Mrs. E. L. Johnson, "and that is to combine parboiled zucchini with crisped minced bacon, bacon drippings and a little tomato paste. Also chopped, browned onion if desired.

Then she asks if we've ever noticed that "most people over-cook squash to the point where it becomes a watery unappetizing mess?"

"When slightly under-done, it can be thoroughly drained and retains much more flavor," she adds. The payoff is that Mrs. Johnson has no space for a garden, but reads this column for "material for discussion with those of our friends who do garden."

Have you sent in a self addressed stamped envelope for your trial packet of the Slow Bolting Flat Dutch Cabbage seed? It's something new in brassicas—a variety which doesn't have that strong odor when it's cooking. I can vouch for that, having enjoyed some before the offer was made.

Dr. Baer Leaves $193,800 Estate

Dr. Adolph B. Baer, 441 Roehampton Rd., Hillsborough, a San Francisco ear, nose and throat doctor who died in a San Mateo hospital Apr. 16, left an estate valued at $193,800.25, Appraiser James A. Lee reported today. Of this amount, $189,667.24 was in securities.

Dr. Baer was the husband of Mrs. Leola Baer and father of Robert B. Baer of Hillsborough, Allen A. Baer of the U. S. Army, and John D. Baer of Burbank.

TAVERN FLUE FIRE

Fire in the flue of the kitchen range at Kelly's Tavern on El Camino Real just south of the Redwood City limits burned itself out while city and county firemen stood by Tuesday afternoon, the Redwood City Fire Dept. reported today.

In February the roof and attic of the tavern were badly damaged by a fire which was caused by an overheated flue, firemen said.

CHP To Probe Fatal Accident

The California Highway Patrol declared today an investigation will be made to determine why an automobile accident in North Palo Alto, which is in San Mateo County, in which a Palo Alto woman received fatal injuries, was not reported to authorities.

Sgt. John Shaffer of the CHP reported that anyone involved in an accident who fails to report it within 24 hours is subject to a $50 fine or five days in jail.

Mrs. Otto P. Herbig of 118 Donohoe St., wife of a Palo Alto paint contractor, died of a brain hemorrhage Sunday, two days after being involved in an accident. Mrs. Herbig's car and one driven by Roy Collins, 180 California Ave., Palo Alto, collided Friday morning at the intersection of Gilbert Ave. and Pope St., North Palo Alto.

Both cars were badly damaged. Collins explained that he was unhurt and that Mrs. Herbig, who was alone in her car at the time of the crash, had no visible injuries.

Three of Mrs. Herbig's sons are in service.

$15,000 Suit Filed In County Court

Suit for $15,000 personal damages was filed here in County Superior Court by Mary Ann Warneke, Donald Warneke, and Tina Sims, all of San Francisco, against Emma Herman and John Walter Herman, 176 Inner Circle.

The complaint charged that carelessness on the part of Mrs. Herman, caused a collision between their two automobiles at Fulton St. and Brewster Ave., June 30, and caused injury to the three complainants.

Mrs. Warneke is asking $7500; Donald, a minor, is asking $2500 and Tina Sims is asking $5000 damages for injuries received in the accident.

Dot Poole, Percy Yates, Jack Galvin Roll High

Dorothy Poole took bowling honors for women in the Mixed Foursome League at the Redwood Bowl this week with a 184 game and a 472 series. Percy Yates took high game for men with a 221 and Jack Galvin took high series with a 582.

The 2030 Club took three games from Raso's Fine Foods, Poole's Transfer won one game from the Fire Bugs and Sequoia Men's Shop took two games from Kelly's Place.

County Population Up 25.9 Per Cent

The census bureau today announced that population in the San Francisco Bay Area, including San Mateo County, has increased 25.9 per cent since Apr. 1, 1940.

Population figures gathered from a sample census show there are 1,840,545 persons now residing in the Bay Area (Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco San Mateo and Solano Counties), compared to 1,461,804 on Apr. 1, 1940.

The figures include residents absent from the areas at the time the census was taken, but exclude visitors who ordinarily live elsewhere. They exclude members of the armed forces living on military and naval reservations.

American Legion Backs Proposition No. 1

Organization of a state-wide committee of volunteer California men and women, working in co-operation with members of the American Legion and Auxiliary, is being completed, to campaign for the passage of Proposition No. 1 on the Nov. 7 state election ballot. The proposal provides a $30,000,000 bond issue for the purchase of homes and farms for veterans of World War II. The measure is similar to the four bond issues overwhelmingly voted by the citizens of California, enabling over 19,000 U. S. service men and women of the first World War to acquire their own homes and farms. The Veterans Welfare Board administered $59,000,000 on these loans, without costing the state, counties or taxpayers a single penny. The tremendous success of the program is nationally known, and many states have sought to pattern their present veterans' aid measures after it.

Ed W. Bolt of San Francisco, prominent California war veterans' leader, is general chairman of the state-wide committee being formed to work for the Veterans' Home and Farm Bond issue. The general committee will include representatives of civic, patriotic, fraternal, veterans, welfare, labor, business and community service organizations throughout California. General Chmn. Bolt has announced the receipt at state headquarters of the Veterans' Farm and Home Committee, 1006 Merchants Exchange Building, San Francisco, of resolutions unanimously adopted by outstanding men and women's organizations representing several millions of members, warmly praising the plan, and urging its passage on Nov. 7 by a tremendous majority.

"Adoption of Proposition No. 1 by the people of California will accord fitting recognition to the state's valiant service men and women, provide a sound investment in finance and security to the state and veterans, and assure an early re-establishment of California's World War II in family and community life," Chairman Bolt stated.

Etiopi Leaves On Overseas Tour

Armando Etiopi and his famous "World's Fair accordion" will leave for New York today to join a USO unit before going overseas to entertain servicemen.

Better known under his professional name, "Armando," Etiopi is well known to persons on the Peninsula where he has been entertaining and giving accordion lessons for the past 17 years.

He signed up for the overseas tour in February, and his instructions to report to New York where he will rehearse with his unit arrived last week.

"They didn't tell me where I'm going after New York," he said, but his instructions directed him to take only 55 pounds of luggage and his accordion, even though his overseas tour will last for six months.

Presumably, he will fly to his overseas destination, he said.

His accordion is decorated with scenes from the San Francisco World's Fair, including the Tower of the Sun, and hence has been nick-named his "World's Fair accordion."

Armando is a graduate of Sequoia High School and has resided in Redwood City for the past 22 years. Since the war began, he has entertained many servicemen in nearby camps and hospitals.

In recent months, he has been employed by the Karr Engineering Co. in Palo Alto.

Put two or three tablespoons of kerosene in a boilerful of white clothes to help lighten them. Be sure to rinse thoroughly to remove any odor.

Three Intersection Crashes Reported to R.C. Police

Three automobile collisions were reported to the Redwood City Police Dept. yesterday, the accident reports showing only one injury to persons involved.

Samuel H. Noxon, 69, of 789 Post St., San Francisco, received a broken collar bone when his automobile collided with a car driven by Victor R. Bellone, 33, 514 South El Dorado St., San Mateo last night at 7:40 o'clock. Both automobiles were towed away from the scene of the accident at El Camino Real and Main St., police reports said.

A car driven by Lora Jane Barrows, 57, 1353 Jefferson Ave., collided with one driven by Charles Rockwell, Jr., 14, of 140 Fulton St. at the intersection of Jefferson Ave. and Adams St., yesterday afternoon, police said. Both automobiles were slightly damaged.

Minor damage to both cars was the result of an intersection collision at Middlefield Rd. and Maple St. yesterday at 8:21 p.m. Drivers involved in the accident were Mike Trujillo, 18, of 602 Bay Rd., Redwood City, and Robert James Book, 19, a sailor who gave his address as Treasure Island.

Guilty of Receiving Stolen Liquor

A. T. Stromertz, who on June 30 was found guilty in Judge Maxwell McNutt's superior court, on three counts of receiving stolen liquor, yesterday was placed on probation for two years provided he reimburse the county the cost of the trial.

PURCHASE RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Axell, nursery operators, have purchased a residence and five acres of land at 51 Cordilleras Rd. from Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Hudson. Stamps on a deed recorded with County Recorder T. Clark Rice at request of California Pacific Title & Trust Co. indicate the sale price was $21,000. Ferguson Realty Co. handled the transaction.

Carpenter Gets Hearing Delay

George S. Carpenter, 43-year-old socialite residing at 443 Fulton Rd., San Mateo, last night sent his chauffeur to Menlo Park Police Court to request that the hearing on a drunk driving charge against him be postponed until next Wednesday night. The request was granted.

Carpenter was arrested by Menlo Park Policeman George Potter early Monday morning and charged with drunk driving.

His wife, Mrs. Mary C. Carpenter, 43, was to appear before Judge Edward I. McAuliffe in Redwood City this afternoon on a charge of being drunk. She was arrested in front of the county jail by Redwood City police.

Carpenter is free on $100 cash bail and Mrs. Carpenter is free on $10 cash bail.

County Democrat Committee Meets

The San Mateo Democratic County Central Committee will meet at the Court House here next Wednesday to study plans for its Roosevelt-Truman-Johnson campaign, it was announced today by Chmn. Edward J. Carrigan.

Working on an outline of campaign plans are a sub-committee appointed by Carrigan and headed by Chmn. Richard D. Armstrong, and including Henry L. Allen, Rene Cazenave, Mervyn Rathbourne, Howard Watkinson and Jackson G. Barnett.

Carrigan and Rathbourne are delegates to the State Democratic convention to be held in Sacramento this weekend.

San Mateo representatives at the state Democratic committee session which will follow the convention include Vincent DeBella, Daniel McSweeney, Mrs. Virgil M. Ringue, Mrs. Rafael Canete and Mrs. R. C. Cameron. Named to represent the county on the eighth district committee are Frank Kent, George Whitesell, Armstrong and Cazenave.

New Bus Service For Palo Alto

A provisional schedule for 20-minute bus service east and north of the Bayshore Highway has been worked out by the Palo Alto City Lines for presentation to the State Railroad Commission, which is expected to give prompt and favorable action, according to J. H. Stubbe, representing East Palo Alto residents who have been petitioning for an extension of present transportation facilities.

John P. Demeter, co-owner of the city lines, said he hoped to start the new service within 30 days after receiving railroad commission approval. He anticipates no difficulty in getting the necessary authorization from the War Production Board for an additional bus, from the War Labor Board for extra drivers and from the Office of Defense Transportation for more gasoline.

The proposed route goes out University Ave. to the Bayshore Highway, as at present then continues on across the Bayshore to Donohoe St., turns east on Donohoe to Cooley Ave., goes north on Cooley to Runnymede St., runs west on Runnymede to University Ave. and thence back to the Southern Pacific station.

The water buffalo exists in a truly wild state only in India, although it is known in parts of Europe and Africa.

Bullock In Last Try To Save Alcalde

Joseph J. Bullock, Redwood City attorney who has made a final bid to save Florencio (Frank) Alcalde, 30, convicted of the murder of Bernice Curtis, from execution in the San Quentin gas chambers, said Tuesday he has received word from Governor Warren that consideration of an appeal is in his hands and that he will let Bullock know the outcome in a few days.

Alcalde is scheduled to die Aug. 18. He was convicted on Mar. 10, 1943, of beating to death Miss Curtis of San Francisco. Her body was found Nov. 23, 1942, in a field near Palo Alto.

In 1935 Alcalde was charged with the murder of Miss Kathleen Robinson, 26, San Mateo laundry worker and stepdaughter of Mrs. Albert Uhl of Redwood City. The case was dismissed for lack of evidence at a preliminary hearing. Bullock defended Alcalde.

Sanders Loses Bid To Compel Permit

F. D. Sanders, operator of Associated Chemicals in San Carlos, this week lost in his bid to compel the City of San Carlos to issue a permit to allow the fertilizer plant to continue in operation.

Superior Court Judge Andrew R. Schottky of Mariposa County, sitting for Judge A. R. Cotton, denied Sanders' petition for a writ of mandate to compel the issuance of a license to operate his business.

Sanders applied for a license to operate on April 3 and on May 11 and was turned down on both occasions. On April 17 the City of San Carlos received a judgment by stipulation against the fertilizer plant, enjoining it from emitting noxious and offensive odors.

The city maintained odors and dust continued to emit from the establishment and Sanders was brought to court July 11 on an order to show cause. Judge Cotton, however, ruled the plant, located on Bransten Rd., was being operated properly and refused to find Sanders guilty of contempt.

On July 21 Sanders brought suit in superior court against the City of San Carlos and members of the city council for a writ of mandate.

Sanders has been in the fertilizer manufacturing business in San Carlos for four years.

Commuters' Column

By JOE CABOOSE

Good news for commuters: (S. P. please note!) The Pullman Standard Car Mfg. Co., Chicago, is building a new type lightweight suburban passenger coach designed to help railroads retain their present commuter traffic after the war. It is feared railroads will loose many customers to other forms of transportation unless they keep apace with new and modern equipment.

Pullman's innovation is called the "Threedex" commuter coach, which will provide short-haul commuter comforts and conveniences available now only in luxury streamliners. It is called "Threedex" because there are three levels—the main level, upper level and a depressed level from which passengers get into seats on the upper level. (And without stepping on anyone's neck, we hope.)

★ ★ ★

The new coach seats 121 passengers (1½ times the capacity of cars now in service). It may provide air-conditioning where needed, and it will have four game rooms—two at each end of the coach on the middle level—where a total of 16 commuters may enjay their bridge or pinochle in complete comfort. (Exit the old search for boards, and the scramble to get a double seat!)

★ ★ ★

There will be ample and convenient baggage storage space, our operatives tell us, and large wide windows on each deck, with focused lights at the normal reading level installed over each seat. The coaches will be streamlined like cars in the crack through trains.

We are wondering if commuters will really be happy when the service is so perfect there will be nothing left to complain about. What, no maid service? No electric razors to shave enroute? No breakfast served at the seat? No morning papers furnished free? What a cheap railroad this turned out to be!

Getting serious for a moment, we have been asked by many readers to make a friendly plea to commuters to help the Southern Pacific management and its train crews to enforce the very sensible and reasonable rules about smoking on trains. As everyone knows, certain coaches are marked off, usually forward in the train, as "smokers." Other coaches are reserved for passengers who do not smoke and to whom smoking is obnoxious and annoying.

To say the least, it is rude and inconsiderat to go into a non-smoker and light up the "vile weed." And it is that to most non-smokers; they can't help it. Some people are actually made ill by tobacco smoke. It isn't a question of being intolerant or blue-nosed. They are allergic to smoke as some are allergic to strawberries or cheese. And no one has a right to intrude upon them.

Most train crewmen make a conscientious effort to enforce the regulations about smoking, but increased traffic since the war has brought a new disregard for the rules, and some crewmen shrug their shoulders or look the other way. The war is no valid excuse for smoking in non-smokers. Invariably there are seats in smoking cars when passengers are standing in non-smokers. Let's all try to be a little more considerate of our fellow commuters, and let's help the S. P. crewmen enforce this rule by never breaking it ourselves.

Don't forget the regular monthly dinner meeting at Sodini's Thursday of this week—Aug. 10. Joe ("Rajah the Great") McClellen, as Secretary McKeegan calls him, has lined up another top-notch speaker for us . . . Samuel H. Morris, dean of the School of Engineering, Stanford University, who will give as something as new and revolutionary in postwar engineering science as his predecessor, Dr. Armstrong, gave us about pencillin in medicine.

For those who worried about whether or not the directors found Stan Perkins' mountain hidout last week for the directors' meeting, let it be said all were present and accounted for except "Rajah" McClellan, who was conducting a private senace that night and could not get away. The directors were slow getting back to town, however. Some of them lost their way and were three days getting home. Mrs. Stan and Ann Conroy had charge of the eats, which were superb.

Personals. . . . Ross Winchester has been promoted to the position of circulation manager for the S. F. Call-Bulletin. . . . Bert Morgan and Clarence Brizee and families are spending two weeks at the Morgan country estate on the Russian River. . . . Elmer (The Great) Ross is busy lining up talent and committees for the big civic parties and drives which he heads this Fall, notably the service men's party at Sequoia and the kickoff dinner for the Community-War Chest. . . . Bill (The Spirit) Curran has been selected to M.C. the big annual barbecue and dance of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce at Sequoia High School, Saturday, Aug. 19.

A double orchid to the little girls of the Jr. AWVS for the very real and effective war work they do daily . . . and practically unnoticed. It was called to our attention Saturday when a couple of them baked almost a gross of delicious cookies in our own kitchen, virtually under Caboose's feet while he was trying to fry himself a hamburger. We know the cookies were delicious because we snitched one before they were carted off to service men at the USO. After a bite or two of the cookie we threw our hamburger away.

This is only one of a dozen different services those little ladies, under the direction of Mrs. Montel Bigler, perform. The group was organized early in the war by Mrs. John Nordstrand, who saw not only a chance to serve the war effort but an opportunity to keep little hands and minds busy and thus minimize in Redwood City what is today the nation's number one social problem—juvenile delinquency. Due to ill health, Mrs. Nordstrand later turned this important work over to the capable hands of Mrs. Bigler. Movements of this kind should be encouraged by every means posible. Right now, we understand, the little girls have no place to meet, and that might be something for the city fathers or some public spirited group to think about.

City Council Committee To Work With Lions Club on Honor Roll

A committee from the Redwood City council will be named to work with the Redwood City Lions' Club on the proposed erection of a billboard for an honor roll of servicemen, Mayor W. W. Hilton said at the council's regular meeting Monday night.

Joseph Territo, chairman of the committee for civic and community betterment, appeared on behalf of the Lions' Club which proposed the honor roll be located near the City Hall.

Two dance permits were granted at the meeting of the council.

Court Madrone No. 158, Foresters of America, received permission to have dances on Aug. 18 and 19 at Foresters' Hall.

Yvonne Schlichtmann was granted a dance license for Aug. 9 and 16.

The council also granted the Redwood City Women's Club permission to conduct a rummage sale at a suitable location on Main St. Sept. 29.

Cancellation of $816.32 in delinquent charges against property on Oak Ave. from Ebener St. to 100 feet east of Reese St. was approved by the council at the request of the city collector. The property will be used as an extension of Oak Ave.

The council approved the annexation of additional property at Red Feather Products Co. No protests were made to the annexation of the narrow strip of land.

Councilman H. F. Anderson asked that the city increase the wattage of the stop lights at El Camino Real and Broadway in order to make the lights more visible.

Barking and loose dogs in victory gardens and in business establishments have caused several complaints, Councilman E. A. Fletcher told the group. He asked that residents keep their dogs in their yards and to keep the animals from disturbing the neighbors by their barking.

The matters of appointing a city treasurer and the proposed ordinance in regard to smoking at the Port of Redwood City were carried over to the next agenda.

Mangiafico Case Dismissed in Court

Case against Mrs. Joseph Mangiafico, 24, 511 North Claremont St., San Mateo, who was charged with stealing saddles, bridles and supplies from the summer home of Martin J. Flynn, county assessor, at Scarpen Peak, north of Half Moon Bay, was dismissed yesterday at request of the district attorney's office.

John Bradley, 31, 1941 North Eldorado St., San Mateo, charged with the same offense, pleaded guilty to petty theft on one count and his case was continued to Aug. 21 for motion on probation.

Sebastian Mangiafico, 28, husband of Josephine, was sentenced in June by Superior Court Judge Maxwell McNutt to six months in the county jail and placed on two years' probation on the same charge.

A resident of ancient Athents could be exiled for 5 or 10 years if 6000 citizens voted for his removal.

R.C. School District Largest in S.M. County

There were 30 active elementary school districts in San Mateo County in 1943-44 and not one was suspended in 1942-43, California Taxpayers Association stated this week, analyzing the adequacy of elementary school support in California counties.

Eight elementary school districts in the county had fewer than 20 pupils in average daily attendance, the association stated.

The smallest elementary school district in the county, Higgins and Pomponio with only five pupils in average daily attendance for 1942-43 received $1625 each from the state for 1943-44.

Biggest elementary district in the county, Redwood City, had 2061 pupils in average daily attendance in 1942-43 and received $126,263 from the state for 1943-44. Total state apportionment to the county for 1943-44 for the 11,484 elementary pupils in average daily attendance was $755,458. Each year's state aid to a district, the association explained, is based on the district's average daily attendance for the preceding year.

9 ways to use fresh fruits

WHEN DELICIOUS late-summer fruits are on the market, there's only one sensible thing to do: put them to good use!

And if the warm days of August make it difficult to think up new ways of doing that, why . . . here are some suggestions that might help!

Plum Sauce tastes mighty good with cookies or cake. Wash plums, prick skins with fork, add a little sugar (depending upon sweetness of plums) and just a little water (to keep from scorching), and cook until tender. All varieties of fresh plums make successful sauce.

Grape-Chicken Salad: just right for supper after a hot day! Toss together diced chicken, chopped celery, orange sections, whole seedless grapes, and French dressing. Serve in lettuce cups, and garnish with small clusters of grapes.

Watermelon Punchbowl is a refreshing idea for serving a cool beverage when you have a number of guests. Cut a large watermelon in half, crosswise, and scoop out all of the "pink meat". Cut off the bottom so it will stand. Fill with iced punch.

Peaches, full-ripe and juicy, make a luscious shortcake whether you use biscuits or cake baked by yourself, or bought at the store.

Cantaloupes, honeydews, casabas—any of the palate-gladdening melons that are in season—make tempting dinner-starters or desserts when they're diced and served in glass. Try mixing two kinds for contrast, garnished with mint leaves. For different flavor, pour grenadine or ginger ale over the melon cubes.

Fresh Apricots (peaches too) add lively interest if they're sliced and used as a generous covering for ice cream.

Plum Pie will be especially popular with the menfolks. Use your favorite recipe for fresh fruit pie, substituting pitted plums.

Grapes lend themselves to many desserts. For instance: fold seedless grapes in cooled blancmange, custards, gelatin whips, rice or bread puddings—or bake them in cream or custard pies.

Honeydew-Grape cocktail starts off any dinner interestingly. Mix a cup each of seedless grapes and diced honeydew melon, cubed sections from a whole orange, 2 tbsps. lemon juice, 1 tbsp. sugar; chill thoroughly and serve in sherbet glasses.
